

BARE GIFT TRUST

TRUST DEED

Phoenix Wealth, Unit Linked Life & Pensions, PO Box 1393, Peterborough, PE2 2TP.

Note

This document is provided on the strict understanding that it is presented as a draft to be considered by the Donor and their legal advisers. It is based on our interpretation of the Law of England and Wales and HM Revenue & Customs' practice at the date it was created. Ultimately its legal and tax effects will depend on the circumstances of each particular case. Accordingly, neither Phoenix Life Limited nor any of its representatives, officials or employees can accept any responsibility for any loss occasioned as a result of its use in any circumstances whatsoever.

5. “Trustees” means the Trustee or Trustees as appropriate for the time being of this Trust.
6. “Trust Fund” means the Policy, the full benefit thereof, any assets at any time added thereto by way of further settlement, capital accretion, accumulation of income or otherwise, and all assets from time to time representing the same, and includes where the context so admits any part or parts thereof.
7. “Trust Period” means the period of one hundred and twenty five years from the date of this Trust Deed which period is also the perpetuity period hereof.
8. “Spouse” includes any civil partner registered under the Civil Partnership Act 2004.

4. PRINCIPAL TRUST TERMS

1. The Trustees shall hold the Trust Fund and the income thereof absolutely for the Beneficiaries and if more than one in the shares specified in paragraph 2. in Part 3 above and if no shares are specified and there is more than one Beneficiary in equal shares absolutely.
2. Section 31 of the Trustee Act 1925 shall not apply but so long as the Beneficiary is under the age of 18 years the Trustees shall have power to pay or otherwise apply for or towards his maintenance education or benefit so much of the income from his share in the Trust Fund as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion think fit and the Trustees shall retain the balance of any such income on trust for that Beneficiary absolutely and until he shall attain the age of 18 years the Trustees shall invest the same and the resulting income thereof in investments hereby or by law authorised and shall hold the same as an accretion to the said balance Provided Always that so long as the said Beneficiary is under the age of 18 years the Trustees may pay or apply as aforesaid any such balance or accretion as if it were income arising in the then current year.
3. During the Trust Period the Trustees shall have power to pay, transfer or apply any part or parts of the Trust Fund to which the Beneficiary is entitled to or for the benefit of that Beneficiary.

5. ADMINISTRATIVE POWERS OF THE TRUSTEES

1. The Trustees shall in the management and administration of the Trust Fund have the widest possible powers (which they may exercise or omit to exercise from time to time at their absolute discretion) of managing and dealing with the Trust Fund in all respects as if the Trustees were the absolute beneficial owners thereof and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing the Trustees shall have the following powers:
 - (i) power to retain the Trust Fund in its present state;
 - (ii) power to sell or otherwise liquidate and deal with any asset whatsoever comprised in the Trust Fund and to invest in any property of whatsoever nature and wheresoever situate and whether producing income or not, including investment in any policies of assurance as the Trustees may in their absolute discretion think fit;
 - (iii) with regard to the Policy and any other policy of assurance the power:
 - a. to effect and pay premiums under such policies;
 - b. to exercise any of the elections, powers, options and privileges conferred by any such policy and to alter the amount of any periodic premiums payable thereunder or the period during which such premiums are payable and to do any of the foregoing notwithstanding that the sum assured may thereby be reduced or increased;

- c. to convert any such policy into a fully paid up policy free from payment of future premiums;
 - d. to surrender wholly or partially any such policy;
 - e. to pay premiums on any such policy and to borrow from any person (including any of themselves) the monies required for any such premium upon such terms as to repayment interest and otherwise as they may think fit;
 - f. to appoint in writing such person or persons as the Trustees think fit to act as agent of the Trustees for the purpose of receiving monies from any person and to apply the said monies as premiums under any such policy already in force or under any such policy which is about to come into force and to become comprised in the Trust Fund;
 - g. to recover, receive or give valid receipts for all monies due or to become due under any such policy so that the receipt by the Trustees of any monies payable under or deriving from any dealing with any such policy shall be a full and sufficient discharge to the Company or other provider of such policy making the payment who shall not be concerned to see to the application of any such monies.
- (iv) power to borrow money on such terms as to interest repayment and otherwise as they may think fit and whether upon the security of the whole or any part or parts of the Trust Fund or upon personal security only and to use such money in purchasing or subscribing for investments or property to be held as part of the Trust Fund or otherwise for any purchase for which capital monies forming part of the Trust Fund may be used;
 - (v) power to pay or transfer any capital or income to be paid transferred to or applied for the benefit of a Beneficiary who is under a legal disability to any parent or guardian of that Beneficiary or to such other person on behalf of such Beneficiary as the Trustees shall think fit and the receipt of such person shall be a complete discharge to the Trustees who shall be under no obligation to see to the proper application thereof;
 - (vi) power revocably or irrevocably to delegate any power or powers in making, managing, realising or otherwise dealing with any property comprised in the Trust Fund to any person or persons (including nominees) upon such terms as to remuneration or otherwise as the Trustees may think fit and no Trustee shall be responsible for the default of any such agent if the Trustee in question employed or incurred expense in employing him in good faith;
 - (vii) power at any time or times by deed or deeds to revoke or vary the administrative provisions of this Trust Deed contained in this Part 5 or to add any further administrative provisions that the Trustees may consider expedient for the purpose of this Trust.

6. APPOINTMENT, DISMISSAL, RETIREMENT AND REMUNERATION OF TRUSTEES

1. The Appointor shall have power to appoint by deed new or additional Trustees.
2. The Donor shall have power to dismiss by deed any Trustee and where the Donor is two persons this power shall be exercisable by them jointly during their joint lives and thereafter by the survivor of them during his lifetime and the said power shall be exercisable notwithstanding that as a result of its exercise the sole Trustee is a corporation which is not a Trust Corporation for the purpose of section 37 of the Trustee Act 1925 or a single individual but not so as to result in the Donor or the Donor's Spouse for the time being becoming the sole Trustee.
3. Any Trustee may retire at any time provided he gives 30 days written notice to the Appointor, Provided Always that no retirement of any Trustee shall take effect so as to result in the Donor or the Donor's Spouse for the time being becoming the sole Trustee.
4. Any corporate body which is empowered to act as a trustee may at any time be appointed as a Trustee and may act by its proper officers in the discharge of its duties as such Trustee and in the exercise of the powers and discretions conferred hereby or by law.
5. Every Trustee shall be entitled to remuneration upon such terms as may be agreed by the Appointor and in the absence of such agreement every Trustee shall be entitled to remuneration in accordance with its normal scale of charges (if applicable) at that time Provided Always that the Donor and the Spouse for the time being of the Donor shall not be entitled to remuneration as a Trustee in any way.
6. Any Trustee other than the Donor and any Spouse for the time being of the Donor:
 - (i) who is engaged in any profession, business or trade may be employed by the Trustees and any Trustee so engaged and employed may charge and be paid all reasonable professional business or trade costs and charges for business transacted and time expended and acts done by him (or any partner or employee of his) in connection with this Trust including acts which a Trustee not being engaged in any profession business or trade could have done personally and whether or not in the usual scope of his profession business or trade;
 - (ii) may exercise or concur in exercising all powers and discretions given to him by this Trust Deed or by law notwithstanding that he has a direct or other personal interest in the mode or result of any such exercise but any of the Trustees may nevertheless abstain from acting except as a merely formal party in any matter in which he may be so directly or personally interested and may allow his co-Trustees to act alone in relation thereto.

7. FURTHER TRUST PROVISIONS

1. The duty of care set out in Section 1 Trustee Act 2000 shall apply to all the functions of the Trustees.
2. No Trustee who is an individual shall be liable for any loss to the Trust Fund arising by reason either of any investment or any mistake or omission made in good faith by him or any other Trustee or for the negligence or fraud of any delegate or agent employed in good faith by him or any other Trustee although the delegation or employment of such agent was not strictly necessary or expedient or by reason of any other matter or thing except wilful and individual fraud on the part of the Trustee whom it is sought to make liable.
3. The Trustees shall have power by deed or deeds revocable (whether by the person making such deed or some other person) during the Trust Period or irrevocable wholly or partially to release or restrict the future exercise of any power hereby conferred on them as if the same were not conferred on them in a fiduciary capacity and so as to bind their successors.
4. This Trust shall be governed by the law of England and Wales and all rights under this Trust Deed and its construction and effect shall be subject to the law of England and Wales and the exclusive jurisdiction of the English courts.
5. Notwithstanding any of the foregoing provisions none of the trusts, powers or provisions of this Trust Deed shall operate or be exercised so as to allow any part of the Trust Fund or the income thereof to be paid, transferred or applied to or for the benefit of the Donor (or where two persons are the Donor either of them).
