Dear <Salutation>

SIMPLIFYING OUR BUSINESS: THE TRANSFER OF AXA WEALTH LIMITED POLICIES TO PHOENIX LIFE LIMITED

We wrote to you in June to update you on the sale of AXA Wealth Limited (AWL) to the Phoenix Group, and to introduce our new brand 'Phoenix Wealth'. We're writing now to update you on our plans to transfer the business of AWL and what that means. The key points are:

- We are planning to transfer all business in AWL, including your policy(ies) to Phoenix Life Limited (PLL), another one of the companies within the Phoenix Group.
- We will apply to the High Court of England and Wales for permission to transfer all of the business. If the High Court gives that permission, we expect the transfer to occur on 8 December 2017.
- Your policy details and terms and conditions will remain the same and your benefits will continue to be paid in the same way as before.
- However, because AWL has a small number of policies that may have been issued to people resident in Guernsey, we are also making a similar application to the Royal Court of Guernsey for approval of a Guernsey scheme. The Guernsey scheme is on substantially the same terms as the UK Scheme. If the Guernsey scheme is approved, policies of Guernsey residents will transfer to PLL on the same date as all of the other policies. If the UK Scheme is approved but the Guernsey scheme is not approved, the Guernsey policies will remain with AWL but will be reinsured to PLL. If this happens, we will let you know.
- The name of the company which collects contributions and makes payments will change from AXA Trustee Services Limited to Phoenix Wealth Trustee Services Limited.

In this letter and the enclosed leaflets we refer to the proposed changes as 'the Scheme'.

What will happen to my policy and my benefits?

No changes will be made to your policy benefits or to your terms and conditions as a result of the transfer. You will continue to be able to invest in the same funds or assets as now and the Scheme will not change the way in which the funds or assets are managed and invested or the way the unit prices are calculated.

You'll continue to see Phoenix Wealth on our correspondence to you and on our website. If you pay contributions you will continue to make the same payments in the same way. The name of the company which collects your contributions will change from AXA Trustee Services Limited (ATSL) to Phoenix Wealth Trustee Services Limited (PWTS�). Direct Debit payments will automatically become payable to PWTS� and the name Phoenix Wealth Trustee Services Limited, or an abbreviated form, will start to appear on your bank statements from shortly after 8 December 2017. Your rights under the Direct Debit notification are not affected - please see the direct debit notice attached for further information. If you receive income payments these will continue to be paid by PWTS� in the same way as they are currently paid by ATSL.

The Scheme will not change the level of service you receive. Financial security for your policy will be maintained by PLL. PLL holds more capital than required by regulation so that it can continue to provide financial security during extreme financial conditions.

How will policyholders be protected?

Your interests are being protected by a rigorous process which includes:

- consultation with our industry regulators in the UK and Guernsey: the Prudential Regulation Authority, the Financial Conduct Authority and the Guernsey Financial Services Commission;
- review of the likely effect of the Scheme on policyholders by an Independent Expert; and
- approval of the Scheme by the Royal Court of Guernsey.

The Royal Court of Guernsey will only approve the transfer if it is satisfied that the proposals meet all the necessary legal requirements and treat policyholders appropriately. The Guernsey Court hearing is expected to take place on 24 November 2017. Policyholders have the right to raise objections where they believe they may be adversely affected and the Royal Court of Guernsey will take these objections into account in reaching its decision. You can find more detail on this in section 4 of the enclosed leaflet 'Scheme Guide'. If you call or write to us with an objection, then we will reply to you and send your objection and our reply to the Independent Expert, and the courts in the UK and Guernsey before the hearings.

What do I need to do?

Please ensure you read the enclosed documents and also let anyone else with an interest in your policy (such as any beneficiary, trustee in bankruptcy, executor, or personal representative) know about our proposals. You do not need to take any action as a result of this letter unless you wish to object to these proposals.

More Information

We have enclosed two leaflets, Scheme Guide and 'Your Questions Answered' to give you some more detail about the proposed changes. You can also find more information, including the full Guernsey Scheme document and the full report from the Independent Expert on our website at www.phoenixwealth.co.uk/FM17. You can also see or obtain copies of the Guernsey Scheme at the offices of our advocates, Mourant Ozannes, at 1 Le Marchant Street, St Peter Port, Guernsey, GY1 4HP, up to the date of the Guernsey court hearing.

If you would like to find out more, we also have a dedicated helpline that you can call on 0808 164 2266 between 9am and 5pm, Monday to Friday until the day before the High Court hearing. There may be a charge for calls made from the Channel Islands and from mobile networks. Please check the cost of the call with your phone provider. We may monitor or record calls.
